President Sees Atlantic Fleet in Action in Hampton Roads
as the Vessels Return from Southern Drill Grounds with New Records

Long Column of Sea Fighters File by the Chief Executive as He Stands on Bridge of Mayflower with Party of Officials

OLD POINT COMFORT, Va.—(By Associated Press)—The Atlantic fleet, bringing back a new record of accomplishment from its southern drill grounds, passed in ceremonial review before President Harding today as it entered home waters in Hampton Roads. More than 60 ships of war, led by the flagship Pennsylvania, were in the long column that filed by to pay a commander-in-chief's honors to the president as he stood with Secretary Denby and a party of officials on the bridge of his yacht, the Mayflower.

A low cloud curtain screened the sunlight from the pageant, softening the grim lines of deck and turret, but adding a hint of near-dusk to the sombre picture, for the fleet wore the gray now used in peace and war alike, and decks were cleared almost as for action, a precaution always taken at sea.

THUNDER OF SALUTE
It was shortly past nine o'clock when the Pennsylvania, passing the reviewing ship, sent up the thunder of her presidential salute and before the twenty-one guns had been spent the next ship in line took up the firing, while the Mayflower's batteries spoke in acknowledgement.

The cannonading continued in an almost unbroken roar until the review was over.
Crews of the battleships manned the rails in living walls of blue as the fighting craft steamed by. On the quarter-deck of each the marine guards snapped to "present arms" opposite the Mayflower, and the bands played the opening bars of the "Star Spangled Banner." In return the presidential yacht paid the proper honors to the senior officer on each passing ship, firing a salute, however, only to the Pennsylvania.

THREATENED BY GOVERNOR, SENATOR BRAND DECLARES

COLUMBUS — (By Associated Press)—Senator Charles F. Brand of Champlain, arriving to a question of personal privilege in the senate this afternoon when the minimum wage bill came up for discussion, charged that Governor Davis had threatened an attack upon him in 43 newspapers of the state if he refused to support the Schrimper bill after having previously requested him to amend the bill and "take the teeth out of it."

Brand said the governor made this demand upon him yesterday morning after he had voted the night before in committee to kill the Schrimper bill and report out a substitute bill. He said the governor gave him two hours to "think it over" and return.

"I did not go back to the governor's office," said Brand, "and last night the attack came in a Columbus paper and I suppose in other papers. As my honor and integrity are involved in this attack, I must answer."

7 CHILDREN HURT

Traction Car Crashes Into School Bus Near Columbus

COLUMBUS — (By Associated Press)—Seven young school children were seriously injured and rushed to Columbus hospitals this morning when a school motor bus carrying 25 children was struck by a Scioto Valley traction car at Rager's Crossing, thirteen miles south of Columbus. The bus stalled on the track. Crashing into it, the traction car threw it against a milk platform, dumping the children to the ground near an electric third rail.

Those injured more seriously were:
Mary Lambert, 14; Mildred Judy, 11; Esther Judy, 9; Lucille Judy, 14; Florence Judy, 8; Iris Yeager, 13; and Barton Yeager, 16.

BERLIN'S OFFER UP TO COUNCIL

Allied Body Will Pass on Reparations Saturday

U. S. AGENT MAY BE SENT

Germany's Proposals Not Pleasing to Great Britain

PARIS.—(By Associated Press)—Application of further penalties to Germany and the tracing of new boundary lines between Poland and German Upper Silesia will be discussed by the supreme allied council at London Saturday, it was learned here today. The council will limit its deliberations to these subjects, it was said, having decided to take up only questions of urgency.

The determination of the frontier between Poland and German Silesia would be based upon reports from the plebiscite commission which supervised the voting held in Upper Silesia, and recommendations from the council of ambassadors.

The United States, it is understood, will be invited to have a representative at the London meeting in French official circles it is said that Prime Minister Lloyd-George, who will act as presiding member of the council because it is held at the British capital, will convey the invitation.

WASHINGTON WAITING
WASHINGTON.—(By Associated Press)—Ambassadors of the allied powers were looking to hear today for indications of the attitude of their governments toward the latest German counter proposals on reparations. As indicated by information contained in Associated Press dispatches from Paris last evening, M. Jusserand, the French ambassador, was expected to inform Secretary Hughes today that the proposals are unacceptable to France.

Similar intimations were received from Brussels but the position the other powers will assume toward the German plan has not been indicated. Their official announcements, however, are expected to be not long delayed in view of Secretary Hughes' known desire to be informed of the attitude of all the allied powers before replying to the German proposals.

BRITAIN DISAPPOINTED
LONDON.—(By United Press)—Germany's reply to the British request for amplification of her reparations note was branded today as "highly unsatisfactory."

The British foreign office dropped the matter and will leave it to the supreme council to pass on reception of the German proposals.

The German answer was said to be vague and to throw no light on the ambiguities in the original proposals.

I. W. W. MEN FLEE

Two Other Convicted Members in Foreign Countries

CHICAGO.—(By United Press)—Two other convicted I. W. W.'s followed the example of their leader "Big Bill" Haywood, and fled the country, according to information received here today.

Otto Christensen, attorney for the I. W. W., said he received word that one of the men is in Petrograd and the other in Bohemia. Their names were not made public.

Haywood now is in Russia conducting the propaganda campaign of the soviet government.

Forty-six leaders of the I. W. W. were reported to have reported at Leavenworth prison Monday to finish sentences of from one to 20 years for violation of the espionage act. Thirty have surrendered, eight accounted for and eight still missing.

WOULD MAKE OUR DRY LAWS DRIER

Rep. Andrew J. Volstead, author of the prohibition enforcement act bearing his name, has hopes of making the dry laws more stringent. 900 GERMANS ARE TO BE TRIED

Will be Arraigned May 23 for Crimes During War

BERLIN.—(By Associated Press)—Nine hundred Germans, whose punishment has been demanded by the entente for crimes committed during the war, will face trial at Leipzig, beginning May 23. Seven judges will sit at the court, and will first hear witnesses against minor offenders on a supplemental list.

The trials of non-commissioned officers, privates, and soldiers, including Captain Mueller, commander at the prison camp at Plavitz-Martel, and Private Neumann, who is alleged to have maltreated prisoners at the prison camp at Pommersdorf, will be the first to be taken up. Captain Neumann, commander of U-boat 67, which sank the hospital ship Dover Castle, will be arraigned some time in June.

Forty-seven witnesses have been called from England to testify in the first three cases. The British, French and Belgian governments will have representatives at the trials, but Germans will conduct the prosecution and the defense.

FALSE TESTIMONY IS ADMITTED

Miss Neely Confesses Perjuring Herself at McGannon Trial

CLEVELAND.—(By Associated Press)—Miss Mary E. Neely, one of the star witnesses for the state in the perjury trial of James F. McGannon, first of the alleged McGannon perjurers, swore in court this morning that she perjured herself "at the request of Judge McGannon" when the judge was on trial the second time for the murder of Harold Karg.

Miss Neely denied in every detail McGannon's story as told by him at the first trial of the former chief justice of how he was driving her about the East End in a taxicab when she claimed at the first trial of McGannon to have been a witness to the slaying of Karg at the corner of Oregon and East Ninth-st.

The climax of her testimony came when she was cross-examined by Attorney William Corrigan for the defense. Corrigan asked three questions:

"Are you under indictment for perjury at the present time?"

"Yes."

"You made a confession admitting perjury at the second McGannon trial, didn't you?"

"Yes."

"Did you perjure yourself in the second trial of Judge McGannon?"

"At the request of Judge McGannon, yes."

Rail Union Head Forecasts Effect of Wage Cut

REPLIES TO ROADS' CLAIMS

Declares Proposed Reductions Not Based on Facts

CHICAGO.—(By Associated Press)—Reduction of railroad wages would impair the standard of American living and would have no justification in "ethics, economic reason or the cold, concrete facts of present day industrial life," it was declared by R. M. Jewell, head of the railway unions, who opened the employees' fight to retain present wage scales before the railroad labor board today.

Contention of the railroads that the cost of living had declined since the wage award of July 1920, were met with the reply that that award was based on the prices of December, 1919, and not on those of July 1920, the peak of high prices. Mr. Jewell declared that it would require three years for railway employees, at their present wages, to recoup the losses sustained during the war period "by the failure of their earnings to keep pace with the increased cost of living."

RATES COMPARED

Mr. Jewell named prevailing wage rates in similar industries and changes in the cost of living as two main considerations which should direct the board's decision in the wage controversy. He said there had been no reduction in wages paid in the basic industries comparable to the railroads and that there had "not been a sufficient reduction in the cost of living to justify a reduction in wages that were inadequate to meet living costs at the time they were established."

"Coal mining and the steel industries are our basic industries that may be compared to the railroad industry," Mr. Jewell continued, "and it is well known that there have been no wage cuts for the miners or for the steelworkers."

CONDITIONS CITED
"In addition to the two main principles set up as a guide for the board in wage determinations, there are also other and more fundamental conditions which must receive judicial notice. These are:

"1.—Economy and efficiency. The transportation act requires that the railroads operate with due economy and efficiency. We shall show that this has not been done; that because of the financial control and policy of the railroads, resources have been dissipated or improperly distributed, improvements and maintenance deferred and operating costs greatly advanced despite the increased work and productive efficiency of railway employees."

"2.—The general policy of the industry. The main items of operating expenses, are of course, fuel, supplies of all kinds, and labor. We shall show that the same financial interests which control the railroads also control the production of fuel, timber, equipment, oil and other supplies and that they have determined upon a policy of decreasing railroad expenses by reducing wages and at the same time charging unwarranted and unreasonable prices for supplies which the railroads must purchase."

"We submit, therefore, that no action looking toward a reduction in wages can now be taken by this board which can be predicted upon any sound basis."

FOUR MEN SHOT

Young Sinn Feiners Executed by Firing Squads at Cork

CORK.—(By United Press)—Four young Sinn Feiners were executed in the barracks here today by firing squads. They were Patrick O'Sullivan, Patrick Roynane, Thomas Mulcahy and Maurice Moore.

The four were charged with waging war against crown forces. O'Sullivan and Roynane were led before firing squad at 8 o'clock. When their bodies had been removed, 15 minutes later, the other two faced the riflemen.

At the barracks gate, a large crowd of sympathizers surrounded relatives of the condemned men who were being comforted by two priests. Women in the crowd were much affected when the first volley announced the death of two men. Most of those at the gate remained kneeling until the second volley was heard and a guard appeared to post a notice that the sentence had been carried out.

Mayor Burkhardt's Charges of Insubordination Against Chief Fall Flat and He Immediately Resumes His Duties at Headquarters

Commission Unanimous in Its Ruling—Motion for New Trial Overruled and Notice of Appeal to Court Is Filed

Acting Chief Jess Hargrove turned over the keys to the chief's office and other possessions to Chief Roush Thursday afternoon without a remark. Roush told Hargrove he need not report for duty tonight to resume his duties as patrolman, but to return for 5 o'clock roll call Friday evening to go back on his beat.

At 2 o'clock Mayor Burkhardt declared that Hargrove is still chief of police, but said he and the solicitor are waiting until a conference can be arranged with Roush's attorneys when the matter will be taken up.

Chief of Police O. J. Roush resumed his duties at headquarters shortly after noon Thursday, following a unanimous ruling of the civil service commission that Mayor F. A. Burkhardt's charges of insubordination, on which he suspended Roush several days ago, were not substantiated in the brief hearing Thursday morning.

Only four witnesses were examined in the trial, two for the prosecution and two for the defense. The case was submitted without argument by attorneys and the commission's decision was made without deliberation.

Mayor Burkhardt and Safer Fred Fisher testified for the prosecution, while Roush and Capt. Dawson took the stand in the chief's behalf.

The large audience which heard the trial was certain of the outcome long before it was finished. Safer Fisher proved a more valuable witness for Roush than he did for the mayor.

Burkhardt made three charges of insubordination. They were:

- 1.—Roush had refused to wear a uniform.
- 2.—Laxity on the part of the chief in gathering evidence for the executive department in connection with the barring of the Marcus show here several weeks ago.
- 3.—Failure of the chief to carry out the mayor's order to break up spitting on the sidewalks.

MAYOR TAKES STAND TO BEAR OUT CHARGES AGAINST ROUSH

Burkhardt was the first witness. He testified concerning giving orders to the chief to wear a uniform. That was several months ago. He alleged that his verbal order was not carried out by the chief, although he admitted that there was some talk concerning the advisability of that officer being in uniform at all times when he issued the order.

The mayor then told of orders to the chief and department to secure what he considered obscene posters in connection with the Marcus show to be used in evidence in the court proceedings. He said these were not carried out.

He also said his orders concerning spitting on sidewalks had not been complied with. On cross examination the mayor admitted that he did not know that arrests had been made by the police for this offense.

FISHER IS STAR WITNESS FOR ROUSH WHEN HE TAKES STAND

It was when Safer Fred Fisher took the stand and testified that the chief had never refused to carry out orders given by Fisher that the prosecution's case broke down. He said he had transmitted orders to Roush from the mayor and that altho the chief at times had appeared not to be in sympathy with them, he had never refused to carry them out.

Fisher gave no testimony of value to Burkhardt in his fight against the chief.

Roush then took the stand. He admitted that the mayor had asked him to wear a uniform, but said they had talked over the matter and that Burkhardt had left it to his (Roush's) judgment concerning the advisability of doing so. He said he had executed all orders given by the mayor.

Capt. Dawson testified that all orders were read at roll call and that a conscientious effort had been made to carry them out.

MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL OVERRULED; FORMAL NOTICE OF APPEAL IS GIVEN

Immediately after the commission had ordered Roush reinstated, Solicitor Garling filed a motion for a new trial. This was promptly overruled by the commission and Garling then handed to the commission a formal notice of appeal to the common pleas court.

Roush's first act was to approach the mayor and shake hands with him.

"Well, I want to shake hands with the mayor, anyway," he said. Burkhardt grinned and said something about going fishing.

GOES TO HEADQUARTERS
Roush then drove to police headquarters with Capt. Dawson and took charge. He placed Sergeant Frank Eberle in charge while he went to lunch.

The chief was greeted with open arms at headquarters. Acting Chief Jess Hargrove was not there, but Sergeant Eberle snapped to attention when he reinstated officer entered. Motorcycle Officer Dick Watkins demonstrated his feelings by stepping to the back door and firing a salute with his revolver. Detective Reed congratulated the chief.

The council chamber where the hearing was held was crowded, the majority of spectators being friends of Roush, it appeared. He was besieged from every side by those who wanted to congratulate him, but he deferred this until he had shaken hands with Burkhardt.

LONG FIGHT PROBABLE
The notice of appeal to common pleas court means that the case will be retried before that tribunal. The mayor and solicitor held that Roush

NOT A BRIBE!

One of the amusing incidents which furnished added comedy to the trial of Chief Roush before the civil service commission Thursday morning, came when City Solicitor Garling, an inveterate smoker, found his supply of cigars had become exhausted.

Garling appealed to counsel for the defense for a word, neither Judge Quail nor Mel Light, attorneys for Roush had one.

Chief Roush saved the day for the man conducting the fight against him by passing over the needed cigar.

"Understand, it's not a bribe," Garling was told.

LEGISLATURE TO TAKE RECESS

Houses Agree to Suspend at Week's End Till May 12

BURNING MIDNIGHT OIL NOW

Sessions Run Into Late Hours in Speeding Up Work

COLUMBUS — (By Associated Press) — Both the senate and house had agreed today to recess at the end of this week until May 12, but the senate refused to accept the house proposal to adjourn sine die on that date. Senator Whittemore, majority leader of the upper branch, declared today it would take two or three days and possibly a week to complete the work of the session after the recess, and at his request the senate refused to vote for final adjournment on that date.

Both houses were in session last night, the house working until almost midnight on its calendar.

MEASURES PASSED

The house passed the Krzyder ice cream bill, to license ice cream manufacturers and establish a legal standard for ice cream of eight percent butter fat; the Gorrell bill, abolishing the state board of clemency and substituting a state superintendent of pardons and paroles under the board of administration; three bills by Representative Silver of Preble-co to provide for a system of state forests and forest conservation, and the Burke bill to extend facilities for the care and education of crippled children.

FISH BILL KILLED

The Emery fisherman's license bill was killed without hope of its resurrection in the house late yesterday, after Representative Crabbe of Madison-co had exposed plans of lobbyists for the fish license bill to conduct a personal attack on him for having opposed the bill. After this exposure the bill was defeated by a vote of 35 to 7. Governor Davis was said to be investigating charges made by Crabbe that a deputy fish and game commissioner in Madison-co had written an alleged slanderous letter about Crabbe for opposing the bill. Crabbe charged that lobbyists for the fish bill attempted to intimidate him by threats to spread this letter broadcast over the state. Advocates of the fish license bill agreed today that no further effort would be made to pass the measure. TAX SITUATION

The appointment of a formal committee of conference of the two houses will be asked for today to consider proposed tax legislation, amendments to the constitution as a result of the action of the house yesterday in voting down the Whittemore classification resolution and substituting for it the Fouts resolution which contains the proposal to adhere to the uniform rule in taxation. This committee will attempt to recommend a compromise proposal for adoption.

The senate yesterday passed the Griswold debt limitation proposal as it passed the house, refusing to approve an amendment which would permit cities to acquire and operate other public utilities than water works. Municipal ownership advocates will attempt to get the amendment in when it comes up in the house or final passage.

The resolution by Representative Weaver of Knox-co, proposing a constitutional amendment to permit the levying of a poll tax in Ohio is to come before the house today.

The Bender bill to exempt tax levies for school library purposes from the rate limitations for other school purposes, thus giving more leeway to the schools in levying taxes, passed the house last night and now goes to the governor for his approval.

STOMACH TROUBLES ARE DUE TO ACIDITY

Tells Safe, Certain, Speedy Relief For Acid Indigestion.

So-called stomach troubles, such as indigestion, gas, sourness, stomach-ache and inability to retain food are in reality the result of too much acid in the stomach. The stomach is the seat of acid, and the acid is taking place in the stomach, causing the formation of gas and acid indigestion.

Gas distends the stomach and causes that full, oppressive, burning feeling sometimes known as heartburn, while the acid irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach. The trouble lies entirely in the excess development or secretion of acid.

To stop or prevent this souring of the food contents of the stomach and to neutralize the acid and make it harmless, a teaspoonful of Bismarck's Magnesia, a good and effective remedy for acid stomach, should be taken in a quarter of a glass of hot or cold water after eating or whenever gas, sourness or acidity is felt. This restores the stomach and neutralizes the acidity in a few moments and is a perfectly harmless and inexpensive remedy to use.

An antacid, such as Bismarck's Magnesia which can be obtained from any druggist in either powder or tablet form enables the stomach to do its work properly without the aid of artificial digestants. Magnesia comes in several forms to be certain to ask for and take only Bismarck's Magnesia which is especially prepared for the above purpose.—Adv.

GIRL MADE QUEEN OF WILD LAND

Californian Falls Heir to South American Jungle
OWNER OF 1,440,000 ACRES
Awarded in Divorce Suit in Place of Alimony

(By WILLIAM G. CAFFE.)
OAKLAND, Cal. — International News Service. — "How does it feel to be a jungle queen?"
Very frankly pretty Miss Ella Mair Bennett does not know. At least that is what she told the interviewer shortly after she had learned that she had become the mistress of a vast domain of South American jungle territory thru the same court decree which gave her a divorce from Bruce Vincent Douglas and permitted her to resume her maiden name.
"I'd much rather not talk," she said with a wan smile at her cozy little apartment upon her arrival there from her duties as a hair dresser in a downtown beauty establishment.
"It's all such a surprise. It hardly seems possible, but I know it is true, as my attorney tells me there is no question as to my legal right to the property which belonged to my husband. I feel a bit tired this evening — as I usually do."
The uncrowned queen of a principality larger than many European countries and sole ruler of a kingdom of 1,440,000 acres is a good-looking brunette, who looks younger than the twenty-two years credited to her.
HAS NO PLANS
"It has come too suddenly to make plans," she said in response to a query as to what disposition she would make of the property awarded her by Judge A. F. St. Sure in lieu of alimony.
"Will you go down and develop it yourself or sell it?" persisted the interviewer.
"That question I can't answer just now, for I will not be granted my final decree of divorce for a year, and until that time my attorney tells me I will be unable to actually take possession of the property. That gives me plenty of time to plan.

"Yes, I'd like to go down there, but perhaps it would not be the best thing to do. I really don't feel like a queen at all."
"You will give up your position?" she was asked.
"No, not at all. I'll be back at work tomorrow as usual. There is really no reason why I should give it up, is there? she parried naively.
Mrs. Douglas, or Miss Bennett as her decrees entitles her to be called, lives with her mother and sister. Both her mother and sister are guarding her against publicity in connection with her newly won domain. It was only after persistent efforts that she agreed to see the interviewer, and not until she had received word from her attorney that it "would be all right to talk."
PREFERS HER ROMANCE
She was much more willing to discuss her romance with Douglas, now serving time in Sing Sing, than how it feels to be a jungle queen.
"Mr. Douglas was a diplomat, explorer and soldier of fortune. I met him in Oakland early in 1920. We were married in New York City a short time after — April 2, to be exact. The day after the wedding I was forced to return to Oakland because of business reasons relative to Mr. Douglas. He followed me here a month later and we left for a honeymoon."
"I understand it was a rather whirlwind affair," the interviewer asked.
"Whirlwind is right," she said, laughing. "In less than a month we toured the entire United States, always stopping at the best hotels and taking in every worth-while amusement. He seemed to have plenty of money, and I never thought anything but that he was a millionaire until when in Seattle he was arrested on a charge of passing fictitious checks, and is now in Sing Sing serving time."

LAMPY CASE GOES TO JURY SOON

Trial of Farmer on Charge of Murder Draws to a Close

VAN WERT — The case of the State of Ohio against John Lampy, charged with the murder of George DeCamp, in a quarrel over a division of crops on the Sprain sisters farm near here in York-tp, is expected to go to the jury some time Thursday afternoon.
The state rested its rebuttal Wednesday afternoon. The defense made no rebuttal. Carl P. Dunifon, prosecuting attorney, handling the case for the state, made his plea to the jury Thursday morning and was followed by Attorney Clem V. Hoke for the defense.
Court adjourned until 1 p. m. when the argument of Attorney H. L. Conn, also of the defense, was begun. The case has been long drawn and bitterly contested.
Evidence showed that Lampy shot and killed George DeCamp, but an effort was made to prove that the shooting was in self defense; that Lampy used a gun when threatened by DeCamp.

BLACKMAIL PROBE IS ORDERED

Charges Made in Connection With Ohio Assembly Work

COLUMBUS — (By United Press) — Probe of alleged "blackmail attempts" against house members in connection with the defeat of the Emery fishing license bill was ordered by the general assembly today.
The action was taken today when the house adopted a resolution by Representative Freeman, of Hardinco, asking appointment of a committee of five to investigate the charges made by Representative Crabbe and others on the floor last night. The charges caused defeat of the bill.
The house today took a slap at Senator DeWeese of Miami-co, when it struck from senate amendments a clause designating the Matthews bill the DeWeese-Matthews bill.
The measure provides for audit by the state of conservancy district accounts. All amendments except that adding DeWeese's name were accepted by the house.

CREDIT SITUATION TO BE SURVEYED

Federal Reserve Chief Will Visit Middle and Southwest

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — Governor Harding of the Federal Reserve Board announced today that he would begin next week a personal survey of the farm credit situation in the middle west and southwest.
The board, the governor said, had thought it advisable that he make a tour of the farming area so as to learn at first hand the problems of the country bankers and trade organizations. Mr. Harding will leave for Chicago Monday to visit the Chicago Federal Reserve district which comprises parts of Illinois, Indiana and Iowa. Returning to Washington the middle of May for meeting of the federal reserve governors, he will leave later for Kansas City, Topeka, Nashville, Oklahoma City and other localities.
The real crux of the farmers' problem, in the view of Mr. Harding, is the foreign situation.
The federal reserve board, Governor Harding said, has no specific plan for relief of the farmers. He explained that the reserve banks could not make direct loans to farmers, but could only rediscount the loans of member banks.

DYKE BREAK SEEN BY DRY CHIEF

Beer Ruling Decried Fake by W. B. Wheeler

SOUNDS NOTE OF WARNING

Calls on Prohibition Forces to Head off Calamity

WASHINGTON.—(By United Press) Characterizing the forthcoming new beer regulations as a "break in the dyke prohibition," Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel for the Anti-Saloon League, today issued a call for the drys of the nation to seal the break. "The whole thing is a fake," said Wheeler, referring to the sale of medicinal beer. "The regulations for the manufacture and sale of beer for medicinal purposes are no sound basis in medicine or in law, for that matter. The law specifically states that no intoxicating liquor is to be sold for beverage purposes. MERELY HELPS DRINKER. "These regulations merely help the drinker to get beer for beverage purposes by getting a physician to certify to an imaginary illness. All the medical properties in beer are easily obtainable in any number of drugs. "It's all a fake and it's up to the friends of prohibition to uphold the principle for which he have fought for so many years. "Four major measures touching on the liquor question are now before congress. One bill seeks the repeal of the Volstead act; another is the new Volstead act to prohibit the prescribing of beer for medicinal purposes and tightening the liquor regulations; a third bill would give American ships the right to carry liquor for sale when out of the three-mile zone and a fourth bill would transfer the prohibition enforcement department to the attorney general's office. RECRUITING DRIVE. Wheeler said that all members of the Anti-Saloon League are being asked to recruit friends of prohibition in a nation-wide campaign to force rigid enforcement of the liquor laws. Word has reached him, he said, that officials in some parts of the country are not over-enthusiastic in their application of the dry laws. "It is our intention to dry up the flow of liquor everywhere," Wheeler said. "Many spots are still wet." Re-opening of the breweries to manufacture real beer under the forthcoming regulations would be a "national calamity," Wheeler said. "To return even in part to the old brewery regime would be a disgrace." Wheeler said, "for soon the sluice gate of the bootlegging beer trade would be wide open and prohibition enforcement would become vastly more difficult."

ANOTHER FORGER SUSPECT TAKEN

Fourth Arrest at Wapakoneta in Bad Paper Cases

WAPAKONETA.—(Special.)—Fourth forger suspect was arrested here by Sheriff Bob Ewing, Wednesday. He is Otto Wierwille, 20, Shelby-co, charged with forging a $75 check on Jerry Dietrich, New Bremen produce dealer. Hearing was set for Friday. He is out on $1500 bond. Three other forger suspects, Arthur Opperman, 21; Marie Koch, 17, and Richard Schroerlucke, 16, were captured in last few weeks. Schroerlucke was taken to Mansfield reformatory last week. Officers say all but Wierwille confessed. Opperman and Schroerlucke were connected in dealings, officials say.

Albert M. Allen, representative of the Y. M. C. A. building bureau, New York city, met with the board of education and advised construction of Y. M. C. A. and library. Board decided to build structure of brick to be paid with $30,000 bequest left by will of the late L. N. Blume.

Vandals broke into six rooms of Williamson School here and took $136, part of fund being raised by pupils for a classroom picture. Two electric light bulbs, which were taken from pupils by Miss Emma Matlehner, teacher, fell to the floor while they were ransacking and burst, frightening visitors away.

Wapakoneta Parish Council decided upon the organization of a Boy Scout troop and will affiliate with the general Boy Scout movement springing up here.

Teachers of this county will vote for a member of the state teachers' retirement board Monday. There are three candidates: M. Emma Brookes, Cleveland; Anna E. Logan, Cleveland; and N. B. Woolen, Cincinnati.

People in this vicinity are eating the best the land can afford. With bass, crappies and frogs being caught in large numbers and mushrooms being found, meals tasty enough to tickle the palate of the veriest epicurean, are served in many homes.

Mrs. Jacob Burden, 64, Unipolis, died of complications.

The local draft board has received word from the War Department that Anglin-co had four draft evaders in the World War. Their names have not been given out.

Miss Emma Matlehner, elementary grade teacher, was elected as a member of the delegation of 11 members of the state teachers' association who will attend a meeting of the national education association in Des Moines, Iowa, next July.

Service Director R. H. Rogers has been named president of the Kiwanis club. G. G. Rice is vice-president and Gus Bowsher treasurer.

Marie Koch, 19, who police say confessed to forging three checks, was bound over to the grand jury under $500 bond. Money she obtained, amounting to $25, was returned.

Business men here will stage a fall farmers' festival the last week in September. Festival Production Co. of Chillicothe will arrange it. An executive committee will be appointed by President Anderson of the Chamber of Commerce to make arrangements.

Two local elementary teachers, Misses Clara Headapohl and Emma Matlehner, have accepted positions with the Cleveland schools, effective at the beginning of the next term.

CHILD, DISOWNED BY MILLIONAIRE

Michigan Man, 76, Denies Fatherhood of Baby
SUES 30-YEAR-OLD WIFE
Thomas W. Corby Asks Court For Divorce Decree

DETROIT — (By International News Service.)

"If there is any justice in the world the stain will be removed from the name of my little girl," says Mrs. Madeline Beale Corby, the wife of Thomas W. Corby, 76, of Grosse Pointe, Michigan, who is asking for an annulment of their marriage, and who alleges he is not the father of Marie Theresa Corby, eighteen months old.

The suit of the seventy-six-year-old millionaire and his thirty-year-old wife features the centuries old drama of youth and age, a pre-nuptial separation agreement and the disputed parentage of a child. It shows, too, some of the remote consequences of the war which on the death of Mrs. Corby's first husband, Maurice Beale, left her stranded in the country, unable to get back to her relatives in Belgium.

Maurice Beale was a young Belgian contractor who had made De-than platonic friendship. Mrs. Corby admits, but declares he delayed marrying her. Finally they were married in May, 1918, but Mrs. Corby maintains that the aged millionaire insisted on her signing a separation agreement before he would marry her. According to this agreement, in case of legal separation, she was to receive $50,000 in lieu of dowry rights.

Raisin Day—April 30th
Next Saturday is Raisin Day all over the United States—the day on which millions will make and try delicious new raisin foods. Try them in your home. Begin on that day to get the benefit of the raisin's healthful food-iron which brings the pretty rose tint to the cheeks.
Try Stewed Raisins on Raisin Day
—the attractive way to bring the bloom of youth to women's and children's cheeks
Stewed Raisins
Cover one half package of Sun-Maid Raisins with cold water and soak overnight. In the morning add a slice of lemon or orange. Place on the fire in the same water in which they have been soaked and allow to cook slowly for thirty minutes. Sugar may be added but it is not necessary as Sun-Maid Raisins contain natural fruit sugar. Serve with or without cream.
Stewed Sun-Maid Raisins are as luscious a dish as was ever served at breakfast. And they bring a benefit that everyone should have.
Rich in food-iron, raisins help to make red corpuscles for the blood. When cheeks are pale the blood has too little iron.
Raisins, through their iron content, tend to bring the rose tint back.
So raisins are "a beauty food," because they promote the good looks of good health. Serve stewed raisins at least twice a week.
Great sanitariums serve them to anemic patients every day.
SUN-MAID RAISINS
Use Sun-Maid Raisins in all your cooking, for they are the finest grown. Made from tender, juicy, thin-skinned California table grapes.
Packed in an immaculate plant in California. Clean, sweet, wholesome American raisins—the kind you know are good.
Three varieties: Sun-Maid Seeded (seeds removed); Sun-Maid Seedless (grown without seeds); Sun-Maid Clusters (on the stem). All dealers. Insist upon the Sun-Maid Brand.
Send for free book, "Sun-Maid Recipes," describing scores of ways to use.

RHEUMATISM Leaves YOU Forever

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.
Every druggist in this country is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if two bottles of Allenburys are consumed, the sufferer will be free from the acute twinges of rheumatic pain he will gladly return your money without comment.
Allenbury has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiable and where the patient was helpless.
Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of Allenbury, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenbury decisively conquers all the worst of the disease and he has instructed 2 Hunter's Drug Stores, Enterprise Drug Store, Thompson's Drug Store, Interurban Drug Store, and Dr. Deane to guarantee it in its own name.

A STRASSBURG GOOSE
A correspondent from E. F. I was interested in your account of the doctor who discovered "cold in the head" in a strange language in three children, thus incurring the wrath of the mother who believed the five-dollar fee should have paid for something more dangerous; and the doctor's subsequent lament that he had not charged nine dollars instead of five.

But I started to write you about raw eggs. I remember that you advised somebody that cooked eggs are more easily digested than raw. But that is only a hint. Are raw eggs less easily digested than the general run of food? Does beating them into egg-nog improve their digestibility? (The answer is "Yes" to both questions.—Dr. Brady.)

Tubercle bacilli picked me up a year ago and put me in bed. Of course I have lost weight—my legs are thin from lack of use—but my face looks as good as ever, due I suppose to the exercise my jaws get in masticating what I consider an abundance of food, general diet. Most people have an idea that a "lunger" should stuff himself. I have managed to keep both my appetite and my bowels in good working order. I believe, because I have refused to be a Strassburg, that I have declined to try this that and the other thing recommended by my friends for "fattening" purposes.

At the sanatorium, however, I have noticed the popularity of egg-nog, and when my own physician suggested them I decided to write you about raw eggs. My doctor's only concern is that he believes I should go heavier on nitrogenous foods and take some nourishment between meals. I eat most anything and quit when appetite is satisfied. I'm glad you have to read this instead of I. I am writing while lying on my business arm.

Yours truly, (E. F.)

A Strassburg goose suffers from fatty infiltration and degeneration of the liver and, for all I know, use of the lights. He may be a fine goose, considered from one point of view, but he isn't a long-lived bird. The era of forced feeding for tuberculosis has passed. The present aim of the physician who is competent to treat lung tuberculosis, is not to fatten the patient but to see that the patient receives a fair, liberal and varied ration, with no particular emphasis on any particular item which is presumed to be very nourishing. In some circumstances the doctor may prescribe raw eggs, or other special items to meet conditions of the individual case. It would be a mistake for a patient to indulge in large quantities of any such thing merely because some incompetent adviser imagines there is "strength" to be gained thereby. Cooked eggs are more completely digested and assimilated, as a rule, than raw eggs.

JUST FOLKS—BY EDGAR A. GUEST

THE LITTLE THINGS

It's the little things that make
Happy lives, and no mistake.
Pride of home and smiling eyes
Isn't born of being wise,
Great or famous. Skill can be Desolate with misery.
Married folks through their days
Need the good old-fashioned ways
Be as thoughtful as you were
When you first were courting her.
Now and then be glad to stop
At the nearest candy shop
And take home a dollar's worth
To the finest girl on earth.
Such a little glad surprise
Keeps the love light in her eyes.

ABE MARTIN

Who remembers when a grocer used to put sand in sugar to make it pay? It seems like folks that are allus complainin' o' feelin' poorly live forever.

SHE WASN'T SICK, BUT HER CHILDREN WERE

Six Months of Care and Worry
Were Too Much for Her
GOT THIN, NERVOUS, TIRED
Her Brother-in-Law, a Doctor,
Said She Was Anemic, and
Advised Pepto-Mangan

Here is a story of a strong, vigorous mother who never knew what ill-health was. But three years ago her two little boys got into the habit of being sick.
Six months of care and worry were too much for her and brought to light the fact, that, with all her apparent vigor, she really was anemic. She lost flesh, couldn't sleep well and got nervous.
Then the doctor (her brother-in-law) prescribed Pepto-Mangan.
She said: "Fred explained a lot about the special sort of iron-content in Pepto-Mangan, and a lot of other things that I don't understand, but what I do understand is that a bottle of Pepto-Mangan is always going to be in my medicine chest as long as I live. Whatever it contains, I don't know or care, but I do know it builds me up when I get run down, and that's enough for me."
Gude's Pepto-Mangan is an absolutely dependable red-blood builder in all conditions of lowered vitality not due to serious disease of the vital organs. It improves the appetite, imparts color to the cheeks, and creates new hope and ambition in those who have become pale, weak and listless. Physicians recommend Gude's Pepto-Mangan. When you order be sure the word "Gude's" is on the package. Without "Gude's" it is not Pepto-Mangan. Furnished in both liquid and tablet form. For sale by all druggists.—Adv.

WHAT THE STARS PREDICT

This is a lucky day.
This rule of the stars is favorable for those interested in mining and real estate, and should bring them unusual success.
Earthquakes and thunderstorms are indicated by the approaching eclipse of the moon and the positions of five of the planets.
There is a prophecy that the affection which the people will feel for the first lady of the land will inspire her to make an unusual record.
Persons whose birthday this is, should have a happy and prosperous year.
Children born today will probably be quick-tempered and high-strung, but persistent and determined. The girls should marry well.

MAYBE CIRCUSLESS SUMMER

SO far as has been revealed at this particular time, Lima is facing a circusless summer. Whether application will be made for permission to erect a "big top" on this city's usual show ground during the season cannot be stated, according to information from the office of Mayor F. A. Burkhardt, where such applications are registered.

Bringing a big circus to town is attended by a considerable amount of red tape. It is the prerogative of the chief executive to charge a large or a small amount for a license for a one day exhibit. Usually, the amount exacted depends upon the reputation of the show in the past, its history elsewhere in the matter of cleanliness in essential features and its freedom from grafters, gamblers, holdup artists and burglars that ordinarily follow big shows.

In the old days it was expected that a gang of crooks would attach themselves to a circus, but in latter years there has been a cleaning up process. Owners came to a realization of the fact that a reputation for cleanliness of performance, riddance of crooks and thugs and thieves was worth something. The process of elimination was a slow one, albeit certain.

And a certain percentage of the population of every community still adheres to the opinion that circuses ought to be required to pay a big license fee for the privilege of setting up and soliciting business, holding that they take a large amount of money out of the community, which never returns.

Despite this fact, which cannot be denied, few red-blooded people oppose the coming of a circus. It is an old amusement institution, changing little in essentials as time goes on, but always welcome. It provides a day of pleasure for young and old and when one is past the point of exhibiting a lively interest in the gay posters and in anticipating the coming of the "great and only," there is something radically wrong with that particular person.

A summer without a circus isn't a real summer, after all.

DEPEW WORRIED OVER "FUTURE"

STARTING ON the eighty-eighth year of his life, Chauncey M. Depew, railroad magnate, after-dinner speaker of national prominence and former United States Senator, still makes his usual daily trip to his office and declares that there is only one small matter that causes him concern.

He states that owing to the fact that there is no record of the exact hour of his birth, none of the oracular persons of his wide experience have ever been able to tell him whether he is to be a success in life. Star gazers tell Chauncey that they could analyze his character if they knew the hour when he was born. Depew says he has often attempted to find out, but in view of the lack of necessary information he will probably never be able to know if he is to be a success.

The venerable Chesterfield retains his never failing wit and good humor despite his years. Early in life he decided that he would not worry. His father and grandfather died of worry, he says, and sixty years ago he determined that such a "fate" should never overtake him. That such a mode of living is conducive to happiness and long life is amply proven in the case of the famous New Yorker.

He has arrived at that stage in life where a birthday is only a passing event, an event that is not particularly worthy of comment, but he is "looking forward with enthusiasm to entering his one hundredth year."

In the summer of 1920 Depew was the "youngest old man" in attendance at the Republican convention in Chicago. He is a source of interest to everyone wherever he goes, for his activity, his genial smile and his ready wit in telling a story. Chauncey declares that he has become so accustomed to looking at the funny side of things that he has "lost his reputation as a serious thinker."

When Chauncey Depew finally pays the debt of nature he will live long in memory. He deserves to, as he has won his place in the order of life of the nation. He is a national safety valve, a wise counsellor.

VALE "BILL" HAYWOOD

SO far as has been discerned, the persistent report extant that William D. Haywood, secretary of the Industrial Workers of the World, fled to Russia on the eve of his incarceration in the Leavenworth Federal prison, has not aroused any pronounced amount of regret among the rank and file of the people of the United States.

Indeed, if Haywood has bled himself to the soviet paradise of Europe, it means the end of the I. W. W. here and should cause real Americans to have a sigh of contented relief. This country should consider itself fortunate in getting rid of him thus easily. Haywood was a disturbing element here for many years. His career has been a varied one. Almost constantly he was running afoul of the Federal authorities as he spread his ruinous doctrine.

Haywood's proven pernicious activities against the American government cover a period of more than ten years. If he will only remain in Russia, there is ample reason for rejoicing thereat in this country. He apparently found it an easy matter to slip out of the United States, but he may find it equally easy to slip back in at will.

If Russia wants Haywood, it can have him and welcome. Tracing his intrigue here was not a difficult matter. The I. W. W., an organization closely bordering on anarchy and often detected in the practice of sabotage, labored unceasingly in this country to stir up strife between those who work and those who employ.

During the war the intrigues of that organization became so pronounced that it was necessary for the government to adopt radical methods in abating it. The conspirators were scattered, many of them awoke from the "dream" in which they had been wandering, but "Bill" Haywood continued his nefarious practices. Facing a term in prison, he fled. Good riddance!

LESS CORN, MORE MONEY

FARMERS of the United States in 1919 raised less corn by 167,000,000 bushels than they did in 1909, but received $1,130,000 more money for their crop. These figures are authentic, having been released by the department of agriculture.

They raised 49,344,000 bushels less barley and received for it $70,000,000 more. In the matter of production of potatoes, 96,000,000 fewer bushels were grown, but their returns were $477,000,000 more.

In 1919 apples grown were 6,412,000 bushels behind the crop of 1909, yet the value of the production was $132,000,000 more. Statistics of this kind afford an argument in favor of more people returning to the soil, but unfortunately prices on farm products just now are not such as to compare favorably with those of 1919. It is also an argument in favor of small crops, but in the matter of consumption large crops are needed.

A JOKE IN HIGHWAY HELP

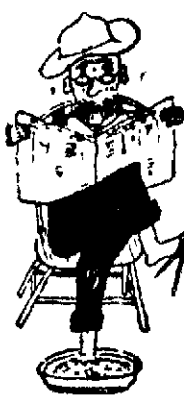

OHIO'S highway commission, looking with covetous eyes on the big appropriations granted many Ohio counties by the United States government as federal aid for good roads, proceeded to "lop off" big portions of the amounts, diverting them to a channel controlled by the state board.

Then came a storm of protest. Even the greedy highway commission heard it and immediately saw visions of punishment later on when an outraged people was afforded an opportunity of getting at them via the ballot box. In an endeavor to dissipate the storm and obviate the certainty of a harbored ill will, the commission is "generously" giving back part of the money it grabbed.

However, the high handed tactics employed at Columbus cannot be altogether forgotten, as will be learned positively and conclusively when the proper time arrives.

PRISCILLA BONNER IN A WALLINGFORD STORY

(BY ESTHER WAGNER)
PRISCILLA BONNER has been selected to play the leading female role in "The Son of Wallingford," the Vitaphone production which is now being filmed at the West Coast studios under the direction of the author, George Randolph Chester. She was chosen as the perfect type for the small town girl who is wooed and won by the son of the famous, but notorious J. Rufus Wallingford.

Miss Bonner has appeared in leading roles in many important productions during the past year. Her appearance as Mary Curtis in "The Son of Wallingford" will mark the third production in succession in which she has played opposite Tom Gallery, who has been engaged for the title role of the cast will include William North as J. Rufus Wallingford; George Webb, as Blackie Law; Arthur Short, Van Dyke Brooks, Arthur Arbuckle, Sydney D'Albrook, Bobby Mack, Florence Hart and Lyta Leslie.

In "The Son of Wallingford," Miss Bonner will appear as a country maid who isn't so easily won by the breezy, young, city-bred Jimmy Wallingford, but who finally is convinced that he is on the level and all he assumes to be.

"The Frontier of the Stars"
IT SEEMS that since "The Miracle Man," there's been a great demand that Thomas Meighan appear again as a crook. Not once a crook, always a crook, understand. But a crook to start with, in order that a regeneration process may be carefully worked out. The obliging producers therefore chose "The Frontier of the Stars" by Albert Payson Terhune.

It's really a lovely little picture that rings true until just at the end. There's entirely too much expected of the hero, Mr. Meighan, who has just been shot and should be all in. When he's scarcely able to open an eye, he is carried upon to leap over buildings, rescue the helpless heroine, carry her down several stories via the fire-escape, and be able to shake hand with the family at the end. That's too much to ask of any fellow, even of a movie hero!

But—Mr. Meighan as the crook is quite thrilling and his devotion to the heroine is something to start the feminine heart palpitating.

Miss Fairo Blaney is the leading lady, and she meets her on a roof, where, a patient little invalid, she rolls around in a wheel chair and communes with the stars. She walks later—that's another miracle. You're awfully glad when it happens, too, for Miss Blaney is a darling, and as like her sister Constance as can be.

From the technical standpoint,

MOVIELAND CHATTER OF PARAMOUNT-LASKY STAR

Ten years ago the wife of a college professor decided that her little daughter would be a beauty and so she deliberately began training her to be a motion picture star. This girl so carefully trained in how sixteen years old and has been presented at the Paramount-Lasky studios. She was immediately put under contract. Her film name is Mary Astor and those who have seen her predict a great future for her.

Mary Astor.

RON ANTERA STEWART
Anita Stewart was robbed of $11,000 worth of jewelry the other day by a man who represented himself as being an electrician. He secured entrance to her home by telling the butler that he had come to look over the wires. Anita and her husband were at the studio at the time, and when they returned they discovered that the safety boxes had been broken open and their valuables stolen.

The theft occurred while the pseudo-electrician had sent the butler for a ladder that he might fix the lights.

The insurance company verified the value of the jewels.

MEMBERS of the Beta Sigma Pi sorority including Misses Bess Sharpley, president; Dorothy Collins, Clara Bell, Lura Mae Gallespie, Nellie Bigley, Helen Hunter, Margaret Graham, Gertrude Boose, Betty Laughlin, Mrs. William Allgre, Marian Dunn, Mrs. Donald McHaffey and Mrs. Paul V. Chivington, Dayton, formerly Miss Gertrude Appanagel, of this city, will be admitted to the Delta Sigma sorority, a national sorority, Saturday.

The Delta Sigma sorority is one of the oldest philanthropic sororities, the mother chapter being located in Buffalo, N. Y. Its purpose is that of promoting philanthropy among the younger sets and everywhere the chapter has been installed splendid proof of what young women can accomplish has been demonstrated.

In the world war the sorority was represented by Miss Margery Jenkins, San Diego, Cal., who served as directress of a canteen in Paris and also at the front, where for many months she supplied coffee to the boys in the trenches. The sorority furnished Miss Jenkins with funds for "extras" for the boys and with funds and supplies for refugees who came to her for aid.

The Pine Mountain Settlement school, Kentucky, which is acquiring a national-wide reputation, has been the recipient of a substantial pledge for many years and besides the individual chapters supporting many orphans, their local work has made some very creditable reports at the annual conventions.

This year the annual convention will be held in Indianapolis the last week in June and it is hoped that the Lima chapter will be well represented.

AH! EPSOM SALT LIKE LEMONADE

You can now buy epsom salts without the awful taste and nausea, by asking your druggist for a handy package of "Epsomade Salts" which looks and acts exactly like lemonade. Because it is epsom salts combined with fruit derivative salts, giving it the taste of sparkling lemonade.

Take a tablespoonful in a glass of cold water whenever you feel bilious, headachy or constipated. "Epsomade Salts" is the much talked of discovery of the American Epsom Association. Adv.

According to those who know all about what will be worn by women of fashion tomorrow and even as far ahead as next week there is to be a return to conservatism in women's dress. At least many of the new models are less radical than those of the past few seasons. There is a decrease in ornamentation, but the new simplicity has brought no decrease in price. As one man aptly stated when buying some of the new frocks, "Modern simplicity implies expense, old-fashioned simplicity dullness."

It is quite true, and there is surely nothing dull about the new fashioning simplicity. Here is a very charming example of the new simplicity. It is a little informal frock of gray canton crepe made with a high-necked blouse and full three-quarter sleeves. The gray is brightened up by the gay red and blue Balkan embroidery which almost covers the entire frock. The tunic, which is slashed to form six pointed panels, is also covered with the embroidery. The sleeves are pointed to match the tunic. Such a simple little frock always holds an important place in the wardrobe of the well-dressed woman.

Frederick S. Craig was the guest of his parents Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Craig, Bellefontaine-ave. enroute to Kansas City, Mo., from a business trip to New York City.

Jitsu Tau club will meet with Mrs. Emil Levy, S. Charles-st. Thursday evening.

Mrs. Harry L. Pew, W. Elm-st. is the guest of friends and relatives in Pittsburg.

Huge fans are still in vogue for dress wear and in many instances they form the most effective color contrast and trimming ideas. The curled or uncured ostrich feathers which have made the most gorgeous fans of the past season are still good, but the very newest idea is the fan made of coque feathers. This odd fan of huge proportions is made of brilliant red coque feathers and is most effective when carried with an all-white or all-black frock. There are other new ideas in fans, although feather fans head the list. Gauze and net fans with gold and silver embroidery are new, but whatever the fan is made from there is one feature common to all—the size. A modern fashionable fan cannot be too large.

In celebration of the 75th birthday anniversary of John Syter, a group of relatives gathered at his rural home and dined on a pleasant surprise. The day was enjoyed socially and at noon an elaborate dinner was served.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Syter and children, Misses Naola, Evelyn, Doris June, and Masters John and Glenn. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Syter, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Syter, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Critchfield and children Misses Mildred, Emerald and Master Harold, Mr. and Mrs. Syter.

Mrs. W. L. Ayers delightfully entertained a coterie of friends at bridge at her home on W. North-st. Wednesday evening. At the conclusion of play, with Mrs. Walter Rowlands holding high score, hostess served a dainty repast.

Mrs. Ayers' guests included Mrs. W. L. Alligre, Mrs. William Renz, Mrs. Francis O'Connor, Mrs. Ruth Korr Hyter, Mrs. Walter Renz, Mrs. Frank Sealts, Mrs. H. E. Schedine, Mrs. Guy Corus and Mrs. Walter Rowlands.

Mrs. F. R. Siglin extended the hospitality of her home on Ritchie-ave. Wednesday to the members of the Carnation club. Needle work and contests, in which Mrs. Donald Newland and Mrs. E. L. Benner were successful, occupied the afternoon hours, after which a dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

SUGGESTIONS

If vegetables have to stand after paring cover completely with cold water to prevent wilting and discoloration.

Rubbing wash goods with egg yolk before washing will take out spots.

Sweet oil for varnished furniture will remove finger marks.

When scaling fish lay them on a paper and use coarse grater.

SUMMER HATS

It is a little too early to tell exactly what our summer hats will be like, but from all indications they will be sensible and at the same time artistic. The exaggerated style does not seem to be gaining favor, and so far no freak hats have appeared.

This is always cheerful to contemplate, because there are so many women who are extremely intelligent on all subjects but that of millinery. It is much more important to choose a hat than to choose a dress. Yet many women know what type of dress is becoming to them who do not know the sort of hat to buy.

Here are a few general hints: If you have a very long nose or a very small one, choose hats with moderately wide brims. When I say a small nose, I mean one that is so small it is insignificant. A well-shaped small nose will look best if the hat brim is short or if a toque is worn.

The small, round turbans that cover the forehead are not becoming unless the hair is dressed quite far down over the cheeks. Hats with turned-up brims should only be worn by very young women, unless the brim turns up so sharply that the effect is mature rather than youthful. Hats that turn sharply back from the face should only be worn by those with good profiles.

A great many of the newest hats are being made of shiny materials—waxed ribbon and waxed straw, for instance. These take a good complexion. If yours is not good, choose material or straw of a softer texture, and choose a dark color. Light colors can only be worn when the skin is clear.

A great many of the hats are made with quantities of uncured ostrich hair trimming. This is a limp feather that is very attractive, but fatal if the face is long and thin.

KEEP TEACHER, IS ADVICE TO YOUNG PUPILS

Dear Miss Smart: I am a young girl in the grade schools. For a while we had such a nice teacher and we all liked her so much. She was good to everyone and gave us all good grades. Now we have an old teacher who is cross and none of us like her. We won't work for her and she won't pass us in our examinations. Will you please tell us what we can do to like her more?

A PUPIL
I THINK you should all be ashamed of yourselves to show such a disrespectful attitude toward your new teacher. Surely you are not giving her a very cordial welcome. Instead of opening your hearts to her as you should have done you have hardened them and thru your present attitude have made teaching almost impossible. As the old saying goes, "Do not cut off your nose to spite your face." In this case you are probably not hurting your teacher, but simply hurting yourselves and losing all the benefit of her teachings.

If you think it impossible to establish a friendly attitude toward her just put yourself in her place. You know that teaching is one of the most trying and irritating positions one can have, especially if the pupils insist in maintaining a hostile attitude toward the teacher. Instead of this spirit of contempt which you have been showing, try in the future, all of you, to give that respect and kindness which is due every teacher. She will return this kindness I am very certain and when you open your hearts your minds will also respond and you will find that your studies will be much more interesting and enjoyable.

Dear Miss Smart: (1) Could you tell me where I could go to have my fortune told? There was a man at the Lyric who told them but he went away. Could you tell me where he went? (2) I am engaged to a man but he is in the army. He says he is true to me. Do you think he is telling me the truth? (3) Who acted in the "Mystery of Myra." I have asked a lot of people but they can't tell me. BLUE EYES

DOUBTFUL
I cannot answer this question thru this column. Forget about fortune tellers. Do not place any confidence in them. One can simply make their life very miserable by permitting such things to occupy their thoughts. (2) If you love this man as you should there would be no doubt whatever in your mind as to his sincerity. (3) I am not certain but I think Pearl White played in this picture.

Dear Miss Smart: I am a young man 19 years old and am in love with a girl four years older than myself. I have asked this girl to marry me and she has accepted me but my parents object to this somewhat because the girl is so much older than myself. I think a great deal of this girl and can't think of giving her up. This girl was married but is now divorced, the decision being made in her favor. Now that she is free I think the world and all of her. Kindly advise me in this case what can be done so the feeling of my parents can be appeased.

I suppose where there is true love the difference in ages should be forgotten. However I do not think that a young man 19 years old is old enough to think of marriage and much less to a young woman so much older than he.

The best plan for you, I think, is to put all thoughts of marriage out of your head for the time. Perhaps, this is simply a case of infatuation on your part and a case of a "second adventure" on the part of the young woman. Whatever it may be, the safe thing for you to do is to wait until you are a little older before you contemplate matrimony.

If Miss K. B. S. will kindly send a two cent stamp as she said she did, her letter will be answered.

NEW BASEBALL COMMISSION NAMED TO DECIDE ALL DISPUTES OF SEASON

NEW BASEBALL COMMISSIONERS
 Roy Enoch, Elks. Marian Burk, Lions.
 Merton Sealts, Rotary. Clyde Waller, Kiwanis
 Frank McClain, Industrial League

Lima now has a Municipal Baseball Commission! Representatives of over a dozen local teams named a commission of five disinterested parties, at a meeting Wednesday in the directors' room at the Chamber of Commerce.

This commission will have jurisdiction over all umpires, and will act in settling disputed questions that are likely to arise during the season at hand.

During the first year the commission will act in an advisory capacity, and gradually broaden their scope as seasons pass.

In cases of disputes, a team or any group of players may file a complaint with the commission. The umpire must send in a written and signed report, the same as the managers of both teams.

The commission will consider each report separately, and a vote of four out of five will be needed to settle the dispute.

WELCOME ALL TEAMS
 All independent teams who wish to come under the jurisdiction of the commission must file their requests with J. Kennard Johnson, managers of the Chamber of Commerce, before they participate in any games.

Besides these duties, the commission shall have progressive ideas in the way of promoting clean baseball and securing more municipal diamonds.

At present only one diamond is available besides the privately owned grounds at the Murphy-st ball park. That is at Faurst park.

NEED OTHER LOTS
 This one municipal diamond cannot meet the demand. Others are needed, and efforts will be made to get the city service department put in another at Faurst park and one at the Lincoln park.

Other sites will be looked over also, and action will be taken in getting several new diamonds within the next few weeks.

The commission will meet for the first time Friday morning at 10 o'clock in the director's rooms at the Chamber of Commerce. At this meeting they will get together and plan some action immediately, and map out definite plans for the coming season.

S. C. Biddle, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., reported thru Clyde Waller that the industrial baseball league is pleased to have the opportunity of getting in with the commission and that teams in the league will abide by the rules and regulations as may be made from time to time.

The business club league is back of the commission strong, and each team was represented at the meeting Wednesday.

MATCHES ARE UPHELD BY COURTS

DENVER, Colo. — Boxing matches for which an admission is charged, and in which the boxers receive compensation for boxing, are legal in Colorado, according to the decision of a jury in criminal court here yesterday. The verdict was rendered in a test case brought after the March 10 bout between Young Fitzsimmons and Bud Clancy in Denver.

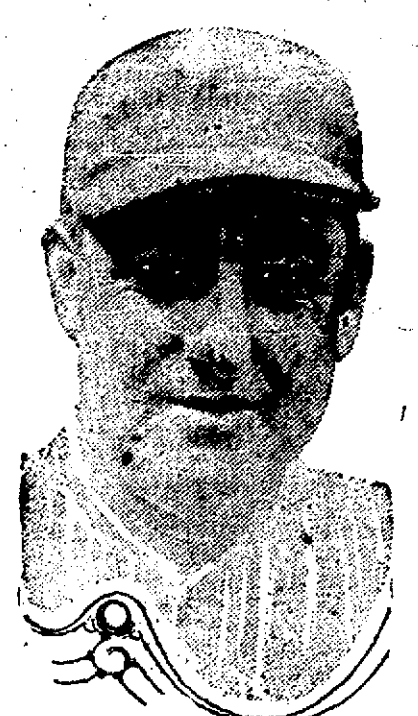

WHO'LL WIN

OAKLAND, Calif.—Fred Wineor, discoverer and first manager of Champion Dempsey:

"Dempsey will win in four rounds. Carpenter cannot withstand the attack of the champion. Dempsey is a cruel punisher. He doesn't have to inflict his damage at long range. He'll start Carpenter on his way in the clinches with short punishment—deafening blows. Carpenter will be ready to fall when the referee separates them. Four rounds will do for the renegade—it may be less."

BAD WEATHER BLAMED BY GLEASON

CHICAGO — Postponements have almost caught up with games played on the White Sox schedule. Seven future double-headers have been chalked up, compared with eight games played, and Manager Gleason is complaining of the lack of opportunity to try out the string of recruit pitchers, secured in place of Gleason and Williams, who were among those discarded because of the 1919 world's series baseball scandal.

Last Sunday was the first appearance of three of the new pitchers, all of whom were batted hard by Detroit.

Reduce those Dangerous Swollen Veins

Physicians are prescribing and hospitals are using a new and harmless, yet very powerful, germicide that not only causes enlarged or varicose veins and bunches to become normal, but also reduces getter, enlarged glands and veins.

Ask any first class druggist for an original one-ounce bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil (full strength) and refuse to accept anything in its place. It is such a highly concentrated preparation that two ounces lasts a long time and furthermore if this wonderful discovery does not produce the results anticipated, you can have the price refunded.

It is not wise for anyone to allow swollen veins to keep on enlarging, often they burst and cause weeks of pain, suffering and loss of employment. Start the Emerald Oil treatment immediately. The improvement will begin at once. Generous sample on receipt of 15 cents, silver or stamps. International Laboratories, Rochester, N. Y. Your druggist or 2 Hunter's Drug Stores, Thompson's Drug Store, International Drug Store, Public Drug Store can supply you.—Adv.

RUNNERS ARE READY FOR CARNIVAL

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. — Franklin field was alive today with athletes from all parts of the United States, who were limbering up after long journeys, in preparation for the University of Pennsylvania's twenty-seventh annual relay carnival tomorrow and Saturday.

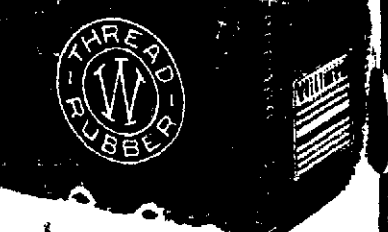

Much interest was manifested in the practice of the University of Redlands, (California) team, which arrived yesterday, because of the remarkable showing made by their one mile relay team last Saturday.

Among the teams scheduled to arrive late today are Syracuse, Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Pittsburgh, Ohio State, Iowa State and Yale.

The fact that the French team and the United States Naval Academy, Princeton, Yale, Pennsylvania, Dartmouth, Pennsylvania State and dozens of other colleges boasting performers of high rating will appear tomorrow have given unusual interest in the first day of the meeting.

MOUNTAINEERS TO PLAY PENN TEAM

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. — Coach Ira E. Rodgers, of the West Virginia University baseball team, and a squad of thirteen players left here last night for Philadelphia where the Mountaineers will meet the University of Pennsylvania today. Nine teams, including Penn. Yale, Princeton, Army, Navy and Lafayette will be played on the trip.

DEMPSEY IS RESTING ON FARM; PLAYS A BIT TO KEEP FIT

(By HENRY L. FARRELL)

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK—Jack Kearns says his "boy" pal and nest egg, Jack Dempsey, is just playing around over in Jersey. That's just what the heavyweight champion of the world is doing.

The writer spent the day over at Freddy Welsh's health farm at Summit, N. J., with the big husky boy who is to meet George Carpenter July 2 for the heavyweight crown.

Dempsey was willing to play pinochle, throw nickels at a hog and experiment with a head lock on the muzzle of a huge hog. He wanted to do anything but talk fight.

"I'm just resting, eating and having a good time," he said. The champion got up at 6:30, put on white flannels and a low-necked white shirt and jogged a couple of miles over the hills, returning with an appetite that ruined a platter of ham and eggs and three or four quarts of fresh milk.

At 9 o'clock he was out on the road with Freddy Welsh, Joe Benjamin and Teddy Hays. It was just a stroll along a little stream where the champion exercised his back, grabbing frogs out of the water to take home and frighten his pet monkey.

Lettuce salad, a big piece of the derlin steak, several bottles of milk and two cups of tea occupied his attention for an hour at noon.

COUPLE O' GAMES
 Followed then a couple of pinochle games, a profitable 30 minutes with the nickel tossing and a wrestling match all over the front yard with a gang of friends. He laid around for the rest of the afternoon and then got ready for dinner.

"I'm not going to do any work until we get our Atlantic City training camp," he said.

"I'm feeling as good as I ever did and I can get in shape with six weeks more. I over-trained for Bill Brennan and I'm not going to make the same mistake this time.

LIKES TO DANCE
 "Yes, I have been dancin' a little bit and I went up to a midnight show last week with Babe Ruth. I know I was criticized for doing it, but a fellow's got to have a little amusement once in a while." For the time being Dempsey has had to put his golf clubs away but he amuses himself at tennis and hand ball.

"I tried pocket billiards, but I was the fish for the whole settlement. Joe Benjamin got rich on me, so I quit."

Concerning all details of the bout yet to be arranged, Dempsey had but one line:

"I don't care. Doc (Kearns) will take care of those things."

He said he didn't care who refereed—"so long as he knows how to count."

BILL HUBER GOES BACK TO MINORS

DETROIT — Bill Huber, Detroit utility infielder, has been released to the Rochester International League club. His release leaves Joe Sargent and Sammy Hale for utility roles with the Tigers and cuts the infield roster to six.

SHORT SHAVINGS

Commenting on the statement of a London suffragist that "only women can keep men out of war," Col. George Bailey says:

"Of course. All nature proves that. Let two roosters occupy a lot and they will be friendly. Let one little brown hen fly over, and the fight is on."

Two brawny men were discussing a mutual friend. One said, "Naow, I tell yer, Bert ain't no blinkin' good. Worryin' kind of blighter 'e is." The other agreed, "Ho, yus, Bert is the kind of blowk that puts on a pair of gloves to do a job o' work, an' then does it wiv 'is feet."

"Talking about service," Jim Morton was overheard telling Clayt Payne, here is one that has 'em all tied to a post. It was 4 o'clock in the afternoon when I 'phoned to a coal company office and ordered a ton of fuel.

"How soon can you send it?" I asked.

"Right away, came back the answer. We're loading it up now."

The scene is a country national school in County Antrim. The teacher is exhibiting a class of tiny boys to an inspector. She asks the top boy,

"Johnny McDowel, who is the Supreme Being?"

Johnny, in a tone of pleased conviction and certainty, "Sir Edward Cairson, miss."

"Wrong—next boy."

Second boy, in a surprised tone,

"Sir Edward Cairson, miss."

"Wrong—next."

Third boy, thinking the teacher either absent-minded or trying to catch them: "Sir Edward Cairson, miss."

"Wrong"

A small boy at the end of the class mumbles out: "God, miss."

Just then teacher and inspector are summoned for a moment into an adjoining room. As they disappear thru the door, three clenched fists are raised, and three small voices chorus: "Ye bloomin' little Sinn Féiner—wait till we get 'em outside."

is made when livestock is shipped co-operatively. Every farmer gets all his stock brings less the actual expense of shipping. No one gets one cent of profit except the farmer.

The average cost of shipping stock thru a co-operative company will not be greater than $1.25 per 100 pounds. This means an average saving of 75 cents on each 100 pounds.

On April 30, 1921 the Allen County Livestock Company, financed by the Allen County Farm Bureau will be explained to the public.

1921 Will Make Way for Thinkers

Fighters will score heavily in 1921—but the big prizes of the year are destined for men who know and understand. Preparedness wins advertising and business battles. It is a product of experience with the addition of forethought and the absence of fearthought.

An important preparation period for business men in this year of 1921 is the forthcoming

Seventeenth Annual Convention
Associated Advertising Clubs of the World
Atlanta, June 12-16

There, problems of new distribution will be considered seriously and helpfully by hundreds and thousands of experience-taught minds. In effect this meeting will be the Great Business Class Room of the current year, dealing with advertising—the powerful motivating force of modern business.

Alert business men will travel a long way for this short course in practical marketing. Be one of them. Make reservations now for your June trip to Georgia.

Exhibits of Domestic and Foreign Advertising, demonstrating the use of practically all recognized mediums, and arranged solely with a view to helping the convention delegate, will be a special feature which, alone, will make the trip worth while.

In June, Atlanta is at its best. High on a ridge between the Gulf and the Atlantic, fanned by cooling breezes and clad in gay summer attire, it is, as proved by United States Weather Bureau reports, a delightful place in June.
